Comments:

my main objection to houses on Cardiff Road is the increased traffic. My day can be dictated by what is on the road. I often wait until the flow reduces.

Then there's accessing Cardiff Road from Railway Terrace. We are at the mercy of other drivers, who slow down to let us out.

With extra traffic lights on Cardiff Road, I very much doubt there'll be much consideration for people trying to access the flow.

Also the lack of any amenities in Eastbrook means always having to use a car. My nearest Shop is at least a half hour walk for me as I am an SAP and Blue Badge holder. The added car owners will all have to use cars for school pickups, shopping, accessing work, hobbies doctors, dentists. The list is endless and so will the car use also be.

With extra housing also proposed off Sully Road, the area will be carnage.

It's sad that there seems to be no consideration for anybody.

Flooding is also a concern, as there are existing problems which will be exacerbated by more demands.

QUESTION 2: WELSH LANGUAGE

We would like to know your views on the effects that proposals in the Deposit Plan would have on the Welsh language, specifically on opportunities for people to use Welsh and on treating the Welsh language no less favourably than English.
