It has recently come to my attention that there is a proposal to build approximately 250 houses on the outskirts of Dinas Powys and I am writing to express my objections to this proposal.

I currently live (and have for 15 years) on Cardiff Road and have seen a huge increase in traffic along the road over the years. I do not believe that the current layout of the road can accommodate the additional traffic that these houses will bring with them, let alone the impact it will have on commuting times and more importantly the emissions from cars being expelled to the local area / residents, especially noting an Infant School on the main road where very young children are playing outside breathing in these chemicals.

Whilst I appreciate the desire to increase the number of residents using public transport to alleviate some of this impact, that too has its own issues such as number of train carriages, infrequency of buses etc. It also creates an issue of safety for pedestrians and cyclist along this route as the more cars - and no doubt frustrated drivers who are unable to avoid the constant gridlock of traffic - the more chance of someone being seriously hurt.

I also believe that the current amenities in the village - schools, doctors etc are unable to accommodate any further residents as the schools are all over subscribed as are all the other local schools within a reasonable distance, and the GP Surgery is already acting at max capacity with regards to appointment availability.

Furthermore, the loss of additional green space is further endangering the local wildlife which has already been affected by the 3 latest developments in Dinas Powys in the last few years.

Finally, I believe that if this development goes ahead it will have a huge effect on residents' mental health in general, as for the most part people have chosen to live in Dinas Powys as it is a small village with a very active community and this is slowly but consistently being eradicated by the continued building of houses which is changing the area from a village to a town like feel.

QUESTION 2: WELSH LANGUAGE

We would like to know your views on the effects that proposals in the Deposit Plan would have on the Welsh language, specifically on opportunities for people to use Welsh and on treating the Welsh language no less favourably than English. Do you think that there will be any impacts, either positive or negative? Please explain
