Dinas Powys is already at saturation point - we can't take anymore housing developments - the infrastructure is not there, schools over subscribed, DI's bursting with patients.

The flow through of traffic is already at capacity, you crawl along the main road most of the time.

Traffic is too heavy for the roads. Flooding - already a big problem will be worse as the drains are old.

We are losing our identity as a village - we do not want this.

Dinas Powys does not want to be lost as a village.
